“As is almost always the case, Adami’s was one of the best lineups of Proseccos I tasted this year”

88+ NV Adami Garbèl Brut
Points Prosecco di Treviso DOC

Bright straw. Almost intoxicating aromas of peach, tangerine, vanilla and white flowers; this is exactly what you expect a Prosecco to smell like. Then simpler and not especially long, with flavors of peach and apricot that are clean and nicely focused. The word garbèl in the local dialect refers to freshness and lightness, traits this wine exudes in spades.
