

August 2017

88+ 2015 Tenuta Cisa Asinari dei Marchesi di Gresy,
Points Langhe Sauvignon DOCG

The 2016 Langhe Sauvignon is a toned and fragrant white wine that offers a pretty bouquet that is redolent of exotic fruit and orange blossom. This expression of Sauvignon Blanc is not as floral or as pungent as you get in Alto Adige or other areas of the far north of Italy. Instead, the wine is more viscous and creamy in texture. The finish is not one-dimensional. The wine sits firm on the palate and could pair with seafood salad or spicy Thai dishes.

—Monica Larner