

Wine Spectator Insider

February 2017

94 2012 Casanova di Neri Tenuta Nuova

Points Brunello di Montalcino DOCG

Precise balance sets the stage for cherry, black currant, violet and tobacco flavors in this smooth, intense red. The tannins are present yet well-integrated and this persists with echoes of fruit and tobacco. Reveals an element of spice on the aftertaste. Best from 2020 through 2035.

—Bruce Sanderson