

Wine Spectator Insider

May 2017

94 2012 Fattoria Selvapiana Points Fornace Toscana IGT

This is settling in nicely, showing fine texture and balance, with black currant, cedar, mineral and spice flavors taking on the character of a maturing Bordeaux, yet this remains slightly wild and earthy, offering hints of licorice and tar on the long aftertaste. Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon and Cabernet Franc. Drink now through 2027. From Italy.

—Bruce Sanderson