Marchesi di Grésy Barbaresco "Camp Gros" Martinenga Riserva DOCG - 2017

JAMESSUCKLING.COM

2022 James Suckling Top 100 Italian Wines #45.

The freshness and firmness of this young 2017 Barbaresco is impressive. The wine is tight and reserved, but suggests greatness, offering cherries, dark cherries, dried flowers and crushed stones. Intense tannins. This is a wine for the cellar. Give it five or six years of bottle age. Try after 2027.
