

Representing Family owned wineries
throughout Italy for over 30 years.

2024 LA VALENTINA
CERASUOLO
D'ABRUZZO DOC
AUGUST 2025

Forbes

La Valentina is a leading producer in Abruzzo, renowned for wines that showcase the region's distinctive mountainous terroir. Cerasuolo d'Abruzzo is an unusual rosé made from Montepulciano, known for its deep cherry hue and full-bodied style. The wine features notes of sour cherry, rose hips, orange zest, and subtle earthy undertones. The palate is rich and textured, with a prominent tannic backbone and firm acidity, revealing flavors of ripe cherry, cranberry, and savory herbs. The finish is long and elegant, with a pleasing bitter-cherry note and a firm acidity.

www.dallaterra.com

Representing Family owned wineries
throughout Italy for over 30 years.

2024 LA VALENTINA
CERASUOLO
D'ABRUZZO DOC
AUGUST 2025

Forbes

La Valentina is a leading producer in Abruzzo, renowned for wines that showcase the region's distinctive mountainous terroir. Cerasuolo d'Abruzzo is an unusual rosé made from Montepulciano, known for its deep cherry hue and full-bodied style. The wine features notes of sour cherry, rose hips, orange zest, and subtle earthy undertones. The palate is rich and textured, with a prominent tannic backbone and firm acidity, revealing flavors of ripe cherry, cranberry, and savory herbs. The finish is long and elegant, with a pleasing bitter-cherry note and a firm acidity.

www.dallaterra.com

Representing Family owned wineries
throughout Italy for over 30 years.

2024 LA VALENTINA
CERASUOLO
D'ABRUZZO DOC
AUGUST 2025

Forbes

La Valentina is a leading producer in Abruzzo, renowned for wines that showcase the region's distinctive mountainous terroir. Cerasuolo d'Abruzzo is an unusual rosé made from Montepulciano, known for its deep cherry hue and full-bodied style. The wine features notes of sour cherry, rose hips, orange zest, and subtle earthy undertones. The palate is rich and textured, with a prominent tannic backbone and firm acidity, revealing flavors of ripe cherry, cranberry, and savory herbs. The finish is long and elegant, with a pleasing bitter-cherry note and a firm acidity.

www.dallaterra.com

Representing Family owned wineries
throughout Italy for over 30 years.

2024 LA VALENTINA
CERASUOLO
D'ABRUZZO DOC
AUGUST 2025

Forbes

La Valentina is a leading producer in Abruzzo, renowned for wines that showcase the region's distinctive mountainous terroir. Cerasuolo d'Abruzzo is an unusual rosé made from Montepulciano, known for its deep cherry hue and full-bodied style. The wine features notes of sour cherry, rose hips, orange zest, and subtle earthy undertones. The palate is rich and textured, with a prominent tannic backbone and firm acidity, revealing flavors of ripe cherry, cranberry, and savory herbs. The finish is long and elegant, with a pleasing bitter-cherry note and a firm acidity.

www.dallaterra.com

Representing Family owned wineries
throughout Italy for over 30 years.

2024 LA VALENTINA
CERASUOLO
D'ABRUZZO DOC
AUGUST 2025

Forbes

La Valentina is a leading producer in Abruzzo, renowned for wines that showcase the region's distinctive mountainous terroir. Cerasuolo d'Abruzzo is an unusual rosé made from Montepulciano, known for its deep cherry hue and full-bodied style. The wine features notes of sour cherry, rose hips, orange zest, and subtle earthy undertones. The palate is rich and textured, with a prominent tannic backbone and firm acidity, revealing flavors of ripe cherry, cranberry, and savory herbs. The finish is long and elegant, with a pleasing bitter-cherry note and a firm acidity.

www.dallaterra.com

Representing Family owned wineries
throughout Italy for over 30 years.

2024 LA VALENTINA
CERASUOLO
D'ABRUZZO DOC
AUGUST 2025

Forbes

La Valentina is a leading producer in Abruzzo, renowned for wines that showcase the region's distinctive mountainous terroir. Cerasuolo d'Abruzzo is an unusual rosé made from Montepulciano, known for its deep cherry hue and full-bodied style. The wine features notes of sour cherry, rose hips, orange zest, and subtle earthy undertones. The palate is rich and textured, with a prominent tannic backbone and firm acidity, revealing flavors of ripe cherry, cranberry, and savory herbs. The finish is long and elegant, with a pleasing bitter-cherry note and a firm acidity.

www.dallaterra.com