CENTORRI Moscato di Pavia IGT

Centorri Moscato di Pavia is a delightful sweet white wine with a gentle effervescence that will satisfy any sweet tooth. Crafted in the style of the famous Moscato d'Asti wines of Piedmont, it is made from the same high-quality Moscato Bianco grapes found in the province of Pavia, Lombardy. This change in grape sourcing has allowed for a more affordable product, without compromising on quality or taste.

With its low alcohol content, this wine is perfect for sharing with friends and family as an aperitif, or pairing with spicy cuisine or decadent desserts. The flavor profile is characterized by delicate floral and fruit notes, making it a delightful addition to any occasion. So, whether you are celebrating a special moment or simply enjoying a relaxing evening, Centorri Moscato di Pavia is sure to impress your taste buds.
