

Contrade Malvasia/Chardonnay

A blend of Malvasia Bianca (90%) and Chardonnay (10%). Malvasia is an ancient indigenous grape of the Mediterranean area. The name "Malvasia" is derived from Monemvasia, a medieval and early Renaissance Byzantine fortress and trading center for wines produced in those areas. The Contrade Malvasia/Chardonnay exhibits straw yellow color with lemon green shades. Notes of lime, kiwis, apple and flowers. Crisp, clean and easy to drink as aperitif, or with lightly flavored foods.

della
Terra winery direct®

Family Owned, Estate Bottled Wines

Contrade Malvasia/Chardonnay

A blend of Malvasia Bianca (90%) and Chardonnay (10%). Malvasia is an ancient indigenous grape of the Mediterranean area. The name "Malvasia" is derived from Monemvasia, a medieval and early Renaissance Byzantine fortress and trading center for wines produced in those areas. The Contrade Malvasia/Chardonnay exhibits straw yellow color with lemon green shades. Notes of lime, kiwis, apple and flowers. Crisp, clean and easy to drink as aperitif, or with lightly flavored foods.

della
Terra winery direct®

Family Owned, Estate Bottled Wines

Contrade Malvasia/Chardonnay

A blend of Malvasia Bianca (90%) and Chardonnay (10%). Malvasia is an ancient indigenous grape of the Mediterranean area. The name "Malvasia" is derived from Monemvasia, a medieval and early Renaissance Byzantine fortress and trading center for wines produced in those areas. The Contrade Malvasia/Chardonnay exhibits straw yellow color with lemon green shades. Notes of lime, kiwis, apple and flowers. Crisp, clean and easy to drink as aperitif, or with lightly flavored foods.

della
Terra winery direct®

Family Owned, Estate Bottled Wines

Contrade Malvasia/Chardonnay

A blend of Malvasia Bianca (90%) and Chardonnay (10%). Malvasia is an ancient indigenous grape of the Mediterranean area. The name "Malvasia" is derived from Monemvasia, a medieval and early Renaissance Byzantine fortress and trading center for wines produced in those areas. The Contrade Malvasia/Chardonnay exhibits straw yellow color with lemon green shades. Notes of lime, kiwis, apple and flowers. Crisp, clean and easy to drink as aperitif, or with lightly flavored foods.

della
Terra winery direct®

Family Owned, Estate Bottled Wines

Contrade Malvasia/Chardonnay

A blend of Malvasia Bianca (90%) and Chardonnay (10%). Malvasia is an ancient indigenous grape of the Mediterranean area. The name "Malvasia" is derived from Monemvasia, a medieval and early Renaissance Byzantine fortress and trading center for wines produced in those areas. The Contrade Malvasia/Chardonnay exhibits straw yellow color with lemon green shades. Notes of lime, kiwis, apple and flowers. Crisp, clean and easy to drink as aperitif, or with lightly flavored foods.

della
Terra winery direct®

Family Owned, Estate Bottled Wines

Contrade Malvasia/Chardonnay

A blend of Malvasia Bianca (90%) and Chardonnay (10%). Malvasia is an ancient indigenous grape of the Mediterranean area. The name "Malvasia" is derived from Monemvasia, a medieval and early Renaissance Byzantine fortress and trading center for wines produced in those areas. The Contrade Malvasia/Chardonnay exhibits straw yellow color with lemon green shades. Notes of lime, kiwis, apple and flowers. Crisp, clean and easy to drink as aperitif, or with lightly flavored foods.

della
Terra winery direct®

Family Owned, Estate Bottled Wines