

“Dalla Terra Winery Direct is a national agent for a stellar lineup of Italian wines like Alois Lageder, Selvapiana, Tasca and Vietti. Based in Napa, in 2020, Dalla Terra added an Italian spirits division to its portfolio. The company works to keep retail costs as low as possible by bypassing the role of a traditional national importer and allowing distributors to buy directly from the winery. Wines from Dalla Terra are extremely well priced for their respective categories, making their portfolio a major driver of Italian wines in the U.S. Under chairman and founder Brian Larky, and President Scott Ades, Dalla Terra is also an active proponent of wineries that are sustainable, organic and biodynamic.” — Wine Enthusiast, Oct 2020
