The 2015 Barbaresco Martinenga is terrific. The warm year yielded a wine with a bit more richness than normal, and yet that depth has been achieved without distorting the wine's essentially mid-weight personality. The sweet red cherry, kirsch and red plum flavors are beautifully resonant on the palate. The balance of fruit, tannin and acid is terrific. As appealing as the 2015 is, I would prefer to cellar it for at least a few years.
