2015 CASANOVA DI NERI BRUNELLO DI MONTALCINO DOCG (WHITE LABEL)

93

APRIL 2020

vinous

The 2015 Brunello di Montalcino is very pretty, showing bright cherry and strawberry tones, as red florals and dusty spices that rise up from the glass, with just a hint of forest floor. On the palate, silky textures give way to red berry fruits and sweet spices, given lift through vibrant acids, as saline-minerals and hints of fine tannin saturate the senses. It finishes long, juicy, and fresh, with savory spice and residual acids buzzing on the senses while dried red fruits and florals slowly fade. The 2015 Casanova di Neri doesn't succeed through power; instead it's a feminine beauty of a wine.
