2020 ALOIS LAGEDER "PORER" VIGNETI DELLE DOLOMITI IGT

DECEMBER 2022

Robert Parker
WINE ADVOCATE

This wine has gone from being part of the Alto Adige DOC to the Vigneti delle Dolomiti IGT appellation. The Alois Lageder 2020 Pinot Grigio Porer (an organic and biodynamic wine with an ample 60,000 bottles produced) shows a slightly copperish color that suggests some brief skin contact. It has an oxidative and sweet-smelling bouquet with honey, apple blossom and candied lemon peel. Its consistency is lean, but there is mild honey-like richness on the mid-palate. Fruit comes from Magrè and Salorno, and the wine is partially oak-fermented and partially aged in oak (and stainless steel) on the lees for nine months.
