2016 Chianti Classico – A Modern Day Benchmark
BY ANTONIO GALLONI | AUGUST 22, 2019

SELVAPIANA

Selvapiana's 2017 Chianti Rufina is bright, floral and nicely lifted, as it always is, but with a bit more textural richness and body than normal. Plush red fruit and silky contours, the signatures of a warm, dry year, give the Selvapiana's Chianti Rufina an extra bit of immediacy and near-term appeal.

Even in 2017, the Rufina retains good energy and plenty of verve. — 89 points
