vinous

The 2021 Malvasia Didyme is pleasantly floral with nuances of green melon and wet stone. This is round, almost glycerol in feel and with a pronounced inner sweetness up front, yet balance is maintained through bright acids and a salty mineral flourish toward the close. The 2021 fades with a bit of a tropical feel, while leaving a hint of candied lime to linger. This is an extremely ripe interpretation of Didyme, yet it's still quite pleasurable.
