wine review online

This is that rare single-vineyard vintage Prosecco from Italy's most prestigious Prosecco district, the hilly Valdobbiadene region. As you might expect, it is very dry and elegant, seamless on the palate with a very fine, creamy mousse and shows refined aromas of peach and apple with impressive length on the palate. What you might not expect is the price. It doesn't cost a fortune and is truly one of the best values in sparkling wine this holiday season.
