The 2017 Pinot Grigio Mongris Riserva is sweetly perfumed and exotic, as dried peaches and nectarine give way to notes of lemon confit, white smoke and vanilla bean. It has suave, silky textures that coast across a medium-bodied frame, all held in perfect balance by vibrant acids. Ripe apples, pears, melon and even a spearmint freshness make an appearance, marked by stimulating minerality, all under an air of sweet florals. This extroverted and structured Pinot Grigio is sure to win a lot of fans and excel over the medium term in our cellars. The Mongris gains its character and richness through partial fermentation in five hectoliter oak barrels, followed by two years refining on the lees prior to bottling.
