A release of about 4,000 bottles, the Russiz Superiore 2016 Collio Col Disôre is an oak-fermented blend of Pinot Bianco, Friulano, Sauvignon Blanc and Ribolla Gialla. This is a generous, mid-weight white with rich apricot, honey, panettone fruit and pastry cream with dustings of cinnamon and nutmeg. There is enough textural richness here to pair with Peking Duck with crunchy skins. Already five years since the harvest, this wine should continue its steady bottle evolution.
