A release of some 4,000 bottles, the Russiz Superiore 2016 Collio Sauvignon Riserva is creamy and honey-like in intensity with tropical layers of papaya and pomelo with sweet almond and pastry cream. This is a mild, mid-weight wine with a silky and polished finish that lasts long on the palate. The wine delivers density and weight on the palate, something you don't usually get with Sauvignon Blanc. You could dedicate this bottle to a more sophisticated plate of scallops with a saffron cream sauce.
