The 2019 Etna Bianco Buonora excites the senses with a lifting display of fresh mint, a spritz of lime, wet stone and crushed apple. It's soft in texture, contrasted by a salty and savory display of brisk acids and minerals. Tension builds through the finale, as the Buonora seems to slowly fizzle out with cheek-puckering tension, lingering on sour citrus and tart orchard fruits. Give this a year or two of cellaring to fully express itself.
