Tenuta Capofaro "Didyme" Salina IGT - 2019

WINE ADVOCATE

There is a big trend now to make dry white wines with the Malvasia grape on the island of Salina rather than the more labor-intensive (and more challenging to sell in foreign markets) dessert wine that is an important part of local winemaking tradition. The Tenuta Capofaro 2019 Malvasia Didyme (a Salina IGT wine) is a certified sustainable wine from this groundbreaking producer. This is a delicately floral and fragrant expression with plenty of white flower and Sicilian jasmine, the kind that opens its blooms on a hot summer night. The wine is lean, pleasantly fresh and accessible to the palate.
