The 2012 Vino Nobile di Montepulciano shows sweet minerals, smoky crushed stone, dusty red currants and a hint of green stems. This is soft (succulent comes to mind), blending ripe red fruits with sweet herbs and minerals, all brightened by lively acidity. While still lightly structured, the 2012 tapers off juicy, giving and persistent, resonating on hard red candies and hints of licorice. It's a very pretty Vino Nobile in its early maturity.
