The 2015 Pas Dosé Metodo Classico Zero Riserva is airy and fresh, with yellow flowers giving way to tart apples, ginger and a spritz of lime. It's finely etched and taut on the palate, rushing a cooling wave of orchard fruits and minerals across its core of bright acidity. This tapers off to tension and is savory with a sour citrus twang that puckers the cheeks. I'm enjoying the salty character here, but the 2015 comes across as a bit one-dimensional.
