A sumptuous wine with dark ruby color and spicy black cherry strawberry aromas with a hint of vanilla, savory black cherry, strawberry fruit with a bit of dark chocolate, crisp mouthwatering acidity, and chalky tannins. Prugnolo Gentile is Sangiovese's name in Montepulciano. It is 85% of the blend with Colorino, Canaiolo, and Merlot providing 15%. It is aged for 18 to 20 months in various sizes of French oak containers, then 6 to 8 months in bottle. Poliziano, which was created in 1961 by Dino Carletti, produces more than 83,000 cases from about 400 organically farmed acres.
