The 2011 Rosso Conero Riserva Agontano wafts up with a gorgeous blend of mentholated herbs, blue and black berries, tobacco and hints of camphor. It's elegant to the core, soothingly soft and silky, with nuances of licorice and balsam complementing its ripe blackberry fruits. While still lightly structured, there's no impeding the energy of the 2011 today; hints of dark chocolate mix with sour citrus and herbal tones that slowly taper off. Wow, what a beautifully mature Montepulciano.
