The 2020 Manzoni Bianco Forra is remarkably pretty and exotic, with nuances of tropical melon and florals offset by ginger and sweet smoke. It washes across the palate with silky, nearly oily textures, contrasted by citrus-tinged apricot and pear underscored by saline minerality. The 2020 finishes with impressive length, lingering around the mouth's perimeter with hints of sour lime and green melon. The combination of complexity and energy here makes the Forra a total pleasure.
