Badia a Coltibuono Chianti Classico DOCG Riserva - 2018

JEB DUNNUCK

A transparent but deep crimson color, the 2018 Chianti Classico Riserva displays a ripe profile in its aromas of baked red plum, sweet baking spices, a hint of vanilla, and dried flowers. Full-bodied, it expands on the palate with ripe tannins and rounded fruit, although it's not heavy and has more modest acidity. Showing more tertiary notes of mushroom-covered earth and a relatively long finish, I would prefer to enjoy this ripe Riserva over the next few years, but it should mature gracefully over the next 10-12.
