All about finesse and complexity, the 2018 Zero from Enrico Serafino is a showstopper. A pure Pinot Nero that spent 60 months on its lees, it has compelling aromas of stone fruit, brioche, Alpine herb and sun-warmed hay. Structured and showing elegant restraint, the bone-dry, savory palate offers ripe apple, tangerine, pastry shell and a saline mineral note before closing on a hint of honey. A silky, continuous perlage of silky, tiny bubbles lends even more finesse.
