Selvapiana "Bucerchiale" Chianti Rufina Riserva DOCG - 2019

WINE ADVOCATE

Going a few years back in time, the Selvapiana 2019 Chianti Rufina Riserva Vigneto Bucerchiale shows medium-rich concentration with Amarena cherry, heritage rose, lightly toasted spice and potting soil. The vintage delivers more softness and fruit weight, and the acidity is integrated and mild. Overall, you get a smooth expression of Sangiovese to serve with a classic roast chicken. This is a 46,000-bottle release. The 2019 vintage celebrates the 40th vintage made of this wine.
