Made with grapes from the towns of Serralunga, La Morra and Monforte, the 2019 Monclivio has aromas of rose, camphor, coffee bean and exotic brown spice. Linear and elegantly structured, the firm palate offers juicy sour cherry, blood orange star anise and espresso alongside taut, fine-grained tannins. It's still youthfully austere and will benefit with more bottle age. Drink 2029-2034.
