Marchesi di Grésy "Gaiun" Martinenga
Barbaresco DOCG Riserva - 2019

Sitting on the south-facing slope of this natural amphitheatre, directly below the hamlet of Asili, Marchesi di Grésy's much-admired Gaiun has an Asili-like lift to its aromatics and fruit. The nose shows some of the warmth of 2019, starting generous and sweet with strawberry fruit, rose petals and orris root, with rich undercurrents of vetiver, conifer needles and dried mushrooms, plus the soft malt and blond coffee notes of oak barriques. However, it becomes beautifully ethereal on the palate, its satiny, diaphanous body exuding perfume while thoroughly encased in a suede sleeve of tannins and gently propelled forward by acidity. Strawberry, rose petal and iris perfume linger enticingly on the finish.
