Medium to dark ruby in the glass, this wine smells of raisins, strawberry jam, and dried herbs. In the mouth, brisk acidity makes flavors of stewed strawberries, cherries, and prunes lively and juicy as dried and fresh herbs flavors mix with black tea. Intense in flavor, but not heavy, with just a little heat in the finish betraying the wine's 15% alcohol. The acidity and the herbal notes make this a very food-friendly bottle despite the higher octane. Closed with a technical/resin cork.
