Masseria Li Veli "Askos" Susumaniello Rosato Salento IGT - 2024

wine review online

Li Veli makes more than one rosé, and this one is from an indigenous grape that even few Italians have heard of – Susumaniello, which exhibits considerable flexibility in how it is made into a varietal or blended. The wine has good intensity, with crisp and savory fruitiness more than fruity fruitiness. It is well-structured in the main taste, but it could be a little longer on the palate – nevertheless, more of a food wine than a sipping wine.
