FOOD&WINE

EIGHT BENCHMARK WINES FROM ITALY -

Although oceans of inexpensive Prosecco lap at our shores daily, not all Prosecco is created equal (and not by a long shot). The dramatic hills of the Prosecco Superiore region produce truly distinctive sparkling wines, and Adami's Vigneto Giardino is among the best - and was also the first SINGLE VINEYARD Prosecco ever produced for the commercial market, back in 1933. It's creamy and subtle, filled with bright gree-apple and floral notes, ending on lingering spice.
