Martinenga Barbaresco DOCG Riserva
- 2015

Decanter

Camp Gros is a steadily consistent Riserva from this substantial estate, where the long-term winemaker is Jeffrey Chilcott from New Zealand. This is aged initially in barriques and then in large casks. The nose is delightfully delicate and stylish, with leafy raspberry and cherry aromas. It's fresh and supple but still has considerable power and drive. Intensity and spice creep up onto the mid-palate, leading to a stylish and long finish.
