The 2012 Chianti Rufina is a bit sweeter and more generous through the mid-palate than the 2013 tasted alongside it. Sweet red cherry, mint, spice, leather and tobacco add shades of complexity. The 2012 is decidedly open-knit and expressive, all of which make it a delight to drink now and over the next decade-plus. The 2012 is unusually open for a young wine from Selvapiana. - Antonio Galloni
