Selvapiana "Bucerchiale" Chianti Rufina Riserva DOCG - 2011

vinous

Sweet tobacco, cedar, leather, game, smoke and menthol are all pushed forward in Selvapiana's 2011 Chianti Rufina Riserva. The warm, early ripening vintage has produced an uncharacteristically approachable, young Riserva that is already quite expressive. I expect the 2011 will only continue to grow with more time in bottle. - Antonio Galloni
