Selvapiana "Bucerchiale" Chianti Rufina Riserva DOCG - 2012

vinous

Sweet red cherry, raspberry, rose petal, mint and spice are some of the many notes that give the 2012 Chianti Rufina Vigneto Bucerchiale its refined, perfumed personality. One of the more elegant recent editions of the Bucerchiale, the 2012 is all about grace. This is an especially bright, lithe Riserva from Selvapiana. All the elements fall in place effortlessly. - Antonio Galloni
