Selvapiana "Bucerchiale" Chianti Rufina Riserva DOCG - 2013

vinous

A host of dark red cherry, iron, plum, smoke, licorice and dark spice infuse the 2013 Chianti Rùfna Vigneto Bucerchiale. Pliant and dense, with tightly wound tannins, the 2013 is going to need at least a few years to unwind. There is plenty to look forward to for those who can wait. Despite its midweight structure, the 2013 packs quite a punch to match its decidedly virile personality. - Antonio Galloni
