The 2009 Verdicchio dei Castelli di Jesi Classico Riserva Podium has reached maturity yet still has years of pleasurable drinking in store. Its bouquet presents notes of raw honey, dried apricot, yellow flowers and hints of iodine. It's silky-soft from start to finish, without a hard edge in sight, displaying almond paste, peach and inner florals. There's a bitter, salty twang of marzipan and minerals that lingers and shows a bit of the vintage's advanced maturity.
