The 2006 Verdicchio dei Castelli di Jesi Classico Podium from Garofoli is dark and alluring, also decidedly nutty and rich, with dusty dried florals, exotic brown spice, candied ginger and crushed stone. It's textural and soft with balanced inner sweetness and zesty acids. Dried peaches, apricot, savory herbal tones and salty minerals give way to a bitter almond with a pinch of residual acids. The 2006 is impossibly youthful and dense. This is drinking beautifully now, in no fear of decline, and with another ten years of evolution to look forward to.
