The 2018 Vernatsch (Schiava) is drop-dead gorgeous. It lifts from the glass with an alluring display of crushed stone, ripe strawberry with green stems, exotic spice and a balancing note of floral undergrowth. It's juicy to the core, with zesty red and black fruits, complicated by salty minerals and nervous acidity, coming across as energetic and ripe yet also grippy. There's a sour citrus twang on the close that punctuates the experience perfectly, as violet florals slowly taper off. Wow. This is an amazing value.
