The Krause family bought this Roero based winery in 2015 and also acquired 4.9 vineyard acres in Serralunga d'Alba to make the first vintage of this comune wine. Serafino's vines are located in the Carpena and Meriame crus, both on Serralunga's western slopes. The wine shows both the ripeness of the warm 2015 vintage and the powerful tannins characteristic of Serralunga. It rested in tonneaux and larger oak casks for 28 months, gaining notes of smoke and spice that accent the dark cherry fruit.
