

ELENA PENNA LONDON DRY GIN

BIO

With generations of familial experience making spirits, Elena Penna and Luca Currado Vietti have revived their families' heritage with Elena Penna Spirits. Elena Gin combines the winemaking and food excellence of the Langhe in Piedmont, the ancestral history and richness of the herbal liquor category, and citrus farming of the Alps. With a resurrection of an old recipe crafted in a small distillery dating back from the 1800s, Elena Gin is a London Dry gin that utilizes ingredients sourced locally throughout Piedmont and the local Alps. The small batches are entirely distilled using two 18th-century wood-fired copper stills. In the traditional one-shot production process the botanicals are distilled together with the pure wheat alcohol, while the herbs undergo infusion and percolation only once.
