WINE STORY

Of the great and historic geographical indications in the Barolo production area, Cerequio has always been at the very top of the territories of excellence. By allowing the distinctive features of this cru to lead the way, the winery was able to obtain a wine of rare elegance and balance. With an articulated and complex bouquet even when young, it expresses itself through a significant streak of tannins, supporting an enveloping and persistent structure. The 2019 vintage was made with organic grapes.
