WINE STORY

The Ravera vineyard is located in Novello and is known for producing wines with higher acidity, which results in vibrancy and mid-weight on the palate. Extremely age-worthy, Vietti's Barolo Ravera is powerful yet elegant. Purchased in 1995, Ravera was primarily used in the blend for the Castiglione Barolo (except for the 1999 and 2000 vintages, when a single-vineyard bottling was released). With the 2010 vintage, Barolo Ravera was produced and has continued each year.
